GENTLENIS, -How can I show you my gratitude for the relief that I have received from the case of water sent me. My case was truly a sad one, and slight palliation all that I looked for, but to feel as in my howhood and prime again—10 stand in the pulpit as when in my prime, seemed out of the question; and yet so it is. God bless you my heart says. I return case and compty bottles to-day to be refilled, and shall wait impatiently for its return. I could not refuse sending some of the water to persons who were suffering as I was, and in exercy instance the relief was the same. Let me know in what way I can show my gratitude and I will gially comply.

Yours truly,

The St. and O. Deal.

A dispatch from Springfield, Ill., last night easy: The necessary steps have been taken here to-day to file a bill by the St. Company for the vacation of the lease of its railroad to the Terre Haute and Indianapolis Railroad Company, and for the delivery of Railroad Company, and for the delivery of the former road to its owners, and an accounting to them for all the profits due the Vandalia-Company. This step has been contemplated for a long time by the shareholders of the Vandalia-Road, but the recent chauge of ownership of the T. H. and I. has, no doubt, precipitated action. The decision of the United States Supreme Court upon the Alice and Terre Haute case covers the case thoroughly, and no doubt is enterlained that the lease will be annulled and the property restored to its owners. Such action would cut the lives-Stayner party off from St. Louis and place the Vandalia line under the active control of the Pennsylvania Railroad interest.
